

National Coalition for Core Arts Standards COPYRIGHT PERMISSION GUIDELINES

Written permission from the State Education Agency Directors of Arts Education (SEADAE) is required whenever copyrighted material, beyond that destined for educational use, is duplicated or disseminated. Permission to reprint is not official until SEADAE and the entity requesting permission have signed the Application for Copyright Permission, and payment is submitted. Permission requests are subject to a processing fee of $25.

Reprint Permission Process

1. Read the NCCAS Copyright Permission Guidelines (p. 1-3) and Application for Copyright Permission (p. 4) contained herein.

2. For all instances needing copyright permission, please download and complete the Application for Copyright Permission, as follows:
 - a. Section A: Provide the date and full contact information requested.
 - b. Section B: Identify the categorical item(s) for which you seek copyright permission. (See p. 2, Section II, items 5-14).
 - c. Section C: Provide information for yourself and your institution as the applicant and publisher of record regardless of whether your request is for commercial or non-commercial use. Provide your name, the name of your institution/company, date of projected publication or dissemination of NCCAS intellectual property, total number of pages for which you are requesting copyright permission, and, if sold, retail cost.
 - d. Section D: Please answer all the questions posed regarding intended use, and provide a detailed description of intended use for the categories you seek copyright permission (items 5-14, page 2). You may attach an additional page if more space is needed for a complete response; however, in the header, reference your name and institution/company from Section C above.

3. Completed application forms will be processed by the State Education Agency Directors of Arts Education as fiscal and copyright agent for the National Core Arts Standards. Allow 4 weeks to process all copyright and reprint requests. If you have questions, you may contact: projectmanager@seadae.org

4. Sign and mail the completed application with the $25 application fee payable to: SEADAE. Mail check and Application for Copyright Permission to:
SEADAE
SEADAE Project Manager
Ms. Cory Wilkerson
899 Center Drive
Palmyra, PA 17078

National Coalition for Core Arts Standards COPYRIGHT PERMISSION GUIDELINES

The following guidelines apply to any commercial or non-commercial entities seeking to duplicate, distribute, disseminate, or make derivative works from the NCCAS National Core Arts Standards that may result in formal or informal publications (books, articles, newspapers, and journals), or for use in professional development and training.

SECTION I: Free and Unlimited use is granted for the following categories:

1. Overarching Anchor Standards
2. Enduring Understandings
3. Essential Questions
4. Framework Matrix Template

SECTION II: Permission is needed for the following categories:

5. Conceptual Framework for Arts Learning (2014)
6. Discipline-specific Performance Standards
7. Discipline-specific Artistic Processes
8. Discipline-specific Cornerstone Assessments
9. Discipline-specific Glossary
10. Illustrations and artwork
11. Templates
12. Tables, graphs, and charts
13. Logos – individual organizations and NCCAS logo
14. Photos – absolutely no photos may be reproduced

SECTION III: Permission is not needed for:

1. Books, Articles, Journals, Newspapers. Free and unlimited access is granted to all entities to reproduce, duplicate, or distribute information the NCCAS Enduring Understandings, Enduring Questions, Anchor Standards, and Framework Matrix Template with prominent display of citation/attribution.
2. Tables, Graphics, and Figures. Significantly adapted tables, graphics and figures that are compiled from numerous other sources, as long as they do not resemble the original resource within the NCCAS document. This means you add new information, present the information or image in a significantly different way, interpret data differently from the original source, or use only a small portion of the original material.
3. Paraphrasing. Generally, one may paraphrase the material presented in the NCCAS intellectual property.

GENERAL POLICIES

1. Commercial Entities. All commercial entities must seek permission from SEADAE to copy, duplicate, reproduce or distribute intellectual property from the NCCAS Standards exceeding 250 words, beyond that attributed to general use (Overarching Anchor Standards, Enduring Understandings, Essential Questions, and the Framework Matrix Template).
2. Fair Use. The public-at-large is granted the right to quote up to 250 words of the National Core Arts Standards if accompanied by proper citation that is prominently displayed. To quote more than 250 words, individuals and entities of the public-at-large must seek permission from SEADAE using the Copyright Guidelines and Application at the end of this document.
3. Educational Use.
 - a. State Education Agencies Directors of Arts Education (SEADAE) and SEADAE member states have unrestricted rights to copy, duplicate, reproduce or distribute intellectual property to meet their needs serving as State Directors of Arts Education.
 - b. Arts Educators teaching in any art discipline (dance, media arts, music, theatre, and visual arts) and teachers in public and private education (PreK-12, higher education, educational outreach centers of performing arts organizations, and community/cultural arts centers) may duplicate the standards as they appear on the NCCAS website without having to request permission from SEADAE.
 - c. If an individual or education entity wishes to copy, duplicate, reproduce, distribute, or prepare derivative works from intellectual property cited on a discipline-specific web site (AATE, EdTA, NAFME, NAEA, NDEO, and Media Arts), educators must seek permission from the individual discipline-specific organization using the Copyright Permission Guidelines and Application at the end of this document.
4. Citations and Attribution. Citations and attribution should appear as follows:
For the National Core Arts Standards
State Education Agency Directors of Arts Education. (2014). National Core Arts Standards. Dover, DE: State Education Agency Directors of Arts Education.
For The College Board reports and research
The College Board. (2012). Child Development and Arts Education: A Review of Recent Research and Best Practices. New York: The College Board.

National Coalition for Core Arts Standards
APPLICATION FOR COPYRIGHT PERMISSION

Section A

Date:
First and Last Name
Title
Company/School
Address
City/State/Zip
Country
Phone/Email

Section B

Title of Publication	National Core Arts Standards
Author	National Coalition for Core Arts Standards
Publisher	State Education Agency Directors of Arts Education
Copyright Date	June 2014

Specific Categories/Sections

Describe material within categories (see Guidelines)

Section C

Title of Publication in which copyrighted material will appear
Publisher's Name
Publication Date
Number of Pages
Projected Retail Cost

Section D

How will the material be used? Make it clear on this Permission Request Form how you intend to use the copyrighted material(s) – e.g., in another copyrighted piece including books, articles, journals, if the amount exceeds guidelines; for educational use or resale; for photocopying; for use in class handouts, professional development, or other (please cite).

Mail with $25 check (payable to SEADAE) to: SEADAE, c/o SEADAE Project Manager,
Ms. Cory Wilkerson, 899 Center Drive, Palmyra, PA 17078

FOR OFFICE USE ONLY:

Royalty Charge:

Payment (method/data): TBD

Date: