

INTERNATIONAL THESPIAN SOCIETY

INDIVIDUAL EVENTS

(Monologue, Duo Acting, Group Acting, Solo Musical Theatre, Duet Musical Theater, and Group Musical Theatre)

In most circumstances, monologues, individual solo songs, and brief excerpts of less than ten minutes do not require a license or other permission from Samuel French when performed for audition purposes or for a limited audience of adjudicators at festivals and competitions. The National Individual Events Rights and Application Form included in the National Individual Events Guide is not required.

Notable exceptions include Neil Simon titles, which always require a license. Please submit a license request on our website, indicating that you are requesting a competition cutting, the name and level of the competition, and cutting length.

If you have questions about whether your proposed monologue or scene requires a license, please email your licensing representatives at K12@samuelfrench.com.

ONE-ACTS & MAINSTAGE PERFORMANCES:

Excerpts of more than ten minutes or short plays require a performance license, which can be requested through the Samuel French website.

If your organization has previously performed the same title, please email your licensing representatives at K12@samuelfrench.com to add a performance. Do not submit a new license request.
